

BIOGRAPHY

Preetha Damodaran, affectionately known as Pree, embarked on her radio career in 2007 at Singapore Press Holding's Number 1 Hit Music Station, 91.3FM. She went by the moniker, Jane Doe.

As a broadcaster, she hosted the "Weekend Ad-Free 40", a commercial-free music programme and a 100-minute music marathon programme, which aired during lunchtime on weekdays. She was one half of the Scandalous Duo of the dedication show "Requests, Texts and Shout-outs" on Sunday nights. She then moved on to host Singapore's only daily chart show, "The Hot 30 Countdown" on weekday nights.

During her 4 years in the industry, she took on a stint with Tourism Australia as an Assistant Producer. She collaborated with both the morning and evening drive-time crews and travelled all around Australia, producing and blogging for the programme.

As an Emcee, she has hosted a wide variety of events & road shows. She has also done voiceovers for advertising campaigns for big companies such as PaperOne, Swisse, Singtel and Best Denki and many other clients. Recently, she hosted the opening ceremony for the President's Challenge at The Istana Ballroom, where President Tony Tan was the Guest of Honour.

As a voice & speech coach, she has coached a director from PwC Singapore a management leader General Electric; a translator from the State Court, management personnel from Singtel amongst other professionals. She has also coached teenagers from the IB and IP programmes, Junior Colleges and university undergrads.

In addition to her Bachelor in Communication Studies and the English Language awarded by the University of Singapore Institute of Management, she also holds the Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA), from Cambridge English Language Assessment, University of Cambridge, which is the most widely taken English Language Teaching qualification.

Ask her what she wants to do now, and she'll tell you she'd like to travel the world one sandy beach destination at a time!
